SuccessBound 2022 Breakout Sessions

First Breakout Session: 10:55 – 11:40 a.m.
Charity Early - Room 172	Room 171	Room 120	Room 131	Room 133
Industry Recognized Credentials. An overview of industry-recognized credentials and the process of adding new credentials to the Ohio Department of Education Approved Industry-Recognized Credential List. Emma Waymire, Program Administrator for Industry-Recognized Credentials	Mad River Project Employment. Transition To Work partnership with local business for paid Internship opportunities for students with disabilities. Jeff Berk, Career Tech Director, Mad River Local Schools	Recognized Pre-Apprenticeship - A Pathway to Success. Ohio State Apprenticeship Council Recognized Pre-Apprenticeship with ApprenticeOhio. Mathew Longfellow, Apprenticeship Service Provider, Office of Workforce Development, Ohio Department of Job & Family Services	Partnering to Provide Work-Based Learning for Medical Academy Students. Hear how Premier Physicians Network has partnered with Upper Valley Career Center to provide internship opportunities for Medical Career Academy students. Naomi Baker, Career Placement Specialist, Upper Valley CC Merrilyn Mills, Practice Manager IV, Premier Physicians Network-Englewood Family Practice	Montgomery County ESC Partners with Transeo: Planning for Equitable Post-Secondary Success. Supporing diverse needs of every student with an emphasis on creating, sustaining, and scaling Work-Based Learning programs. We will touch on some of the most common challenges educators face, including: Creating relevant, accessible experiences; Building and maintaining a business partner database; Marketing WBL programs to the community; Building and supporting the talent pipeline; Removing equity roadblocks Candice Sears, Director of Instructional Services, Montgomery County ESC Bryan Stewart, Workforce Director, Montgomery County ESC Beth Ferrigno, Strategic Sales Consultant, Transeo

Second Breakout Session: 12:30 – 1:15 p.m.

Charity Early - Room 172	Room 171	Room 120	Room 131	Room 133
Industry Recognized Credentials. An overview of industry-recognized credentials and the process of adding new credentials to the Ohio Department of Education Approved Industry-Recognized Credential List. Emma Waymire, Program Administrator for Industry-Recognized Credentials	Northmont City Schools – Career Exploration and Community Mentors. Learn about the 8th grade Career Exploration Class at Northmont Middle School and the district wide Community Mentorship program at Northmont City Schools. Angie Clifford, Community Engagement Coordinator, Northmont City Schools and Executive Director, Northmont Area Chamber of Commerce Beth Cooper, Career Education Teacher, Northmont Middle School	Senate Bill 166: Tax Credit Certificate program for Work-Based Learning Experiences. Participants will hear from Department of Education staff on the applicable way for businesses to leverage the Tax Credit Certificate Program for Work-Based Learning Experiences as passed in Senate Bill 166. Leah Amstutz, Director, Ohio Department of Education	Work-Based Learning (WBL) Tracker. Learn how two districts utilize internal data collection on work-based learning opportunities for their students. Learn how staff implement the data collection process with students to input work-based learning data for the instructors to review and provide student feedback. Naomi Baker, Career Placement Specialist, Upper Valley CC Jesse Maxfield, Satellite Supervisor, Miami Valley CTC Theresa Lingenfelter, Satellite Supervisor, Miami Valley CTC	Business Advisory Council's: Leveraging Opportunities for our region! This session will highlight the Montgomery County Business Advisory Council (BAC) and provide various examples of the work being done in the K-12 workforce space. This session will provide possible actions for you to get involved Bryan Stewart, Workforce Director, Montgomery County ESC

Third Breakout Session: 1:25 – 2:10 p.m.

Charity Early - Room 172	Room 171	Room 120	Room 131	Room 133
Work-Based Learning: Pre-Apprenticeship. This session will highlight the best practices of pre-apprenticeships from around our region. We will discuss the necessary steps to creating a pre-apprenticeship program for school districts, building industry partnerships and establishing a pipeline for students to continue their education. Todd Schilling, Pre-Apprenticeship Coordinator, Sinclair College	Employment Options For People With Disabilities – Transitioning from High School to Beyond. The Abilities Connection, a non-profit service provider empowering people with disabilities and other barriers to achieve their full potential through meaningful employment, training, and support, will share with you their strategies for preparing high school students and adults with the skills and experience they need to successfully secure and retain employment in the community. Kevin Spriggs, Manager of Human Services	Awarding Credit Where Credit is Due! Participants will hear from Department of Education staff on the applicable way to leverage credit flexibility and simultaneous credit for student's career pathway courses and experiences. Join this session to discuss ways to create credit flexibility plans to award credit where credit is due! Cassie Palsgrove, Director, ODE	The Easy Button for Hiring High School Students. The Strategic Ohio Council for Higher Education (SOCHE) will discuss how schools can work with employers, trade associations and SOCHE to build work-based learning and other engagement opportunities for their students, so students can learn about the great career opportunities across the region. Cassie Barlow, President Strategic Ohio Council for Higher Education	Piqua Community Manufacturing Days. T he Piqua Chamber of Commerce, Upper Valley Career Center, local Education/Higher Education, and Industry/Community Partners such as UDRI-FASTLANE have built an award-winning Business Advisory Council (BAC) that has created a career pathway of talent…with a hometown focus? This session is for those wanting to build a community to sustain local talent and create a leading BAC. April Vanover, Workforce Development and Government Relations Lead, UDRI-FASTLANE Kathy Sherman, President, Piqua Chamber of Commerce Tony Trapp, Apprenticeship Coordinator, Upper Valley CTC Scott Bloom, Curriculum Director, Piqua City Schools

Fourth Breakout Session: 2:20 – 3:05 p.m.

Charity Early - Room 172	Room 171	Room 120	Room 131	Room 133
Work-Based Learning: Pre-Apprenticeship. This session will highlight the best practices of pre-apprenticeships from around our region. We will discuss the necessary steps to creating a pre-apprenticeship program for school districts, building industry partnerships and establishing a pipeline for students to continue their education. Todd Schilling, Pre-Apprenticeship Coordinator, Sinclair College	Darke County Summer Manufacturing Camp. A locally-designed program to not only open up the minds of young people to manufacturing but to also teach them important skills used in any job they may pursue in the future such as, problem-solving, teamwork, and communication. Andrea Townsend, Director of Career Technical & Special Education, Greenville City Schools Tamala Marley, Workforce Specialist, Darke County Economic Development Lisa Hileman, Senior Communication Specialist	Comprehensive Case Management and Employment Youth Program (CCMEP). Explore the Comprehensive Case Management and Employment Program for Youth offered by each county and the wrap-around services provided. Included in this session is a program overview, services provided and general eligibility requirements. There will also be a review of OhioMeansJobs activities. Sharon Watson, Regional Supervisor, JobWorks Program Manager Erin Harris, Administrative Assistant	Honda Development and Manufacturing of America. Equipment Service Technicians are currently in demand at Honda and require technical and analytical skills to identify and solve problems quickly. The Edison State to Honda Manufacturing Internship program helps prepare students with the skills needed to take on these in-demand roles. Mike Hoyng, Unit Manager of Equipment Services Kalyn Garrison, Corporate Student Recruiter	Greene County Business Advisory Council – Expanding Partnerships To Expand Local Capacity. The work and focus of the Greene County Business Advisory Council (BAC) was carefully examined this 2021-22 school year with an intention to expand the knowledge surrounding local efforts and resources to help meet the shared goals of achieving highly effective schools, and a robust regional economy. Reflecting the intention to build a community—not just a committee. Amy Baldridge, Director of Alternative Programs and Instructional Support Services